On 15-Acre Site In South Sanford

New School In 1980's?

by Bob Murray

SANFORD - The purchase of 15 acres in south Sanford for a new elementary school should be one of the primary goals of the School Department in the early 1980's, according to a report prepared by Super Charles Beattie.

Beattie said in his five year plan that the acquisition of the 15 acre parcel is one of the goals he sees facing the School Committee, and another closely related goal is the study and development of plans for erecting a K-8 elementary school building on the site.

Beattie made his recommendation for the new facility in part on information provided by town planners.

If the housing projects that are now presently in the planning stages are completed, Dr. Beattie stated in his report, the number of additional students enrolling at the elementary level could increase significantly in the years ahead.

There are now 13 elementary schools in town and although the Middle School presently is overcrowded, said Dr. Beattie, that condition would be alleviated with completion of the new school in south Sanford which would accommodate students in grades four, five and six from the southern part of town.

This first year of the decade also will mark the completion of the junior high school addition after seven years of planning and compromising with the State Department of Education. Scheduled for completion in September, the addition will add or modify a number of facilities in the Main Street complex. Those facilities to be enlarged or improved with the addition are the cafeteria, library, special learning disability center, physical education remedial area, a gymnasium and an administrative guidance office area.

This building complex should take care of our junior high needs for many years to come, predicts Dr. Beattie.

The superintendent also sees the present high school facility adequately meeting the needs of the Catholic School Week Celebrated

SANFORD - Students, faculty and staff of St. Thomas School are in the midst of celebrating Catholic School Week, and a number of activities have been planned.

Yesterday the school held open registration for September classes, and the best news is that tuition will remain the same for next year. According to Sister Patricia, principal, the school expects approximately the same number of students to enroll. This year there are 301 students in grades one through six attending the nine year old school on Cottage Street.

Tonight there is an oratory contest for fifth and sixth graders at 7:30 at the school. Sponsored by the Modern Woodmen of America insurance group based in Rock Island, Ill., the theme of the contest is "I Will Be President".

Trophies, certificates and pens will be awarded to those who participate and the top two finishers will receive the county level at last year's date.

Sister Patricia admits she does not know what to expect Thursday, Teacher Appreciation Day, but in the past students have tried to behave better and have made small items from classroom material for their teachers.

Friday the celebration will emphasize the religious aspect when all the students will attend a 9:30 a.m. Mass at Holy Family Church on North Avenue. The school's annual carnival will be held Saturday from 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. at St. Ignition Gym. Gerri Nesson of Springfield, publicity director of St. Thomas PTO, says there will be a number of games and booths at the carnival and that the cost of each game will be 10 cents. All proceeds from the carnival will be used to help defray costs at St. Thomas, said Mrs. Nesson.

Earlier this week, a community breakfast was sponsored by St. Thomas and funds from that proceed also are being used to help defray costs.

Sister Patricia said that in those who were unable to register for classes Tuesday may do so this Sunday, March 23, from 2 to 4 p.m. at St. Thomas. A birth certificate and immunization record must be presented at the time of registration, said Sister Patricia.

Dr. Richards To Be Feted

SANFORD - Dr. Carl E. Richards, a longtime family practitioner and surgeon in Sanford, will be honored by the local chapter of Rotary International at a public dinner Wednesday, March 26 at the National Guard Armory. Dr. Richards, a member of Rotary for 13 years, is the past president of the Sanford Medical Association and has been a member of the Goodall Hospital staff since 1938.

A medical examiner for more than 10 years, Dr. Richards has served as chairman of numerous area campaigns to benefit The National Foundation and Heart Fund. He also has served for six years on the Maine Board of Registration for the medical profession and is a past president of the Maine Chapter, American Academy of Family Physicians.

The evening's festivities also will mark the 75th anniversary of Rotary International, according to local chairman Elias Thomas III. Thomas said the evening will begin at 6:30 with a reception for Dr. Richards, who is a past president of the local Rotary chapter. Those attending the dinner also will have the opportunity to view a brief presentation of Rotary's involvement in the national and local levels, according to Thomas.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used to purchase a portable electrocardiograph and defibrillation unit called a "Life-pack" which will be presented to Goodall Hospital in Dr. Richards' name.

The cost of the "Life-pack" is approximately $6,000. Some 1,000 invitations are being sent to Rotarians, members of the medical profession and friends, according to chairman Thomas.

Much Excitement At Pray Home

Guide Dog For Lebanon Woman

LEBANON - There has been a great deal of excitement the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Pray of Upper Little River Road. Thelma arrived home with her guide dog, Pam. Pam is a beautiful female, black Labrador who will now be Thelma's guide and companion.

After 27 years of blindness, Thelma had little difficulty in her everyday life. She lost her sight at age 13. Three years after the operation, she applied to the Guiding Eyes for the Blind in Tuxford Heights, N.Y. for a guide dog. Although not scheduled to receive her dog until November, she received a notice to report in February and the excitement began.

When the dog was brought into the room to meet Thelma, it was a touching introduction. In fact, Pam was so excited she bounded up to Thelma and played a game on her nose. Needless to say, it was love at first touch for both dog and mistress.

For the next 75 days, Thelma and Pam worked together. Pam, a 16-month old dog, had gone through a three-month training period before Thelma arrived. The training they would now go through would be to acquaint Thelma with the commands that Pam was ready and eager to obey. They were taken to strange territory with the Guiding Eyes trainer and put into situations which one day they might face alone. The ease with which the dog worked her way through a crowd of crowded bus streets never failed to thrill her mistress. Each situation is different and Pam seems to have a way of knowing just what to do for any given situation.

Pam will live in active life with Thelma. President of the Fitty-Five Club of North Berwick, Thelma is also

by Bob Murray

SANFORD - Sanford firefighters reached a contract agreement with the Sanford Fire Company last Monday after nearly a year and a half of negotiation.

Details of the agreement were not divulged.

Leon Currier, president of the International Association of Firefighters, Local 1024, and the union's chief spokesman during the talks, said that cases are problems from our side with the men standing by the agreement.

Robert Whitman, chairman of the fire commission, said after the two hour meeting held in the Town Hall, we have reached an agreement, he has signed it, no particulars will be released at this time.

Spokespersons from both sides of the table said that the agreement stipulated that neither side would divulge details of the settlement until the bank and the life of the union were first presented with the particulars. That will happen said Currier.

When the union holds its regular monthly meeting on the first Tuesday of next month.

Monday's session was the 23rd meeting between the union and the commission. Currier gave credit to state-appointed mediator David Longmire for the settlement.

We were brought together, said Currier, you have to give him credit.

The union chief also disavowed any credit to a citizen's petition drive

Discipline Policies To Be Studied By SAD 57

WATERBORO — The SAD 57 Board of Directors voted last week to organize a special committee to study the school district's disciplinary policies. The committee, which will be headed by the association's president, will also study the board's recent decision to suspend students for disciplinary reasons.

Discipline policies have been a hot topic for the board members at their bi-monthly meeting last week. The Teachers Association said it was concerned with the long range effect of the board's decision. The statement also said that the association won't attempt to usurp the authority of the board but that the association believes it has been inconsistent with recent disciplinary matters.

In recent weeks the board of directors has reviewed administration rulings concerning a high school athlete consuming alcohol on school grounds, and the publication of an "underground newspaper." In both instances the directors have lessened or lifted disciplinary action which had been taken against the students by the administration.

The association asked that the directors follow a procedure which would include investigation, solicitation of views from all parties involved and that there be an opportunity for rebuttal before a determination is made.

"As educators who deal with situations in the classroom every day," said association secretary David Demers, "we feel that our authority has been undermined by the recent board decisions. Our authority is only as strong as the backing we receive from the board."

The special committee will be organized by Supt. Vincent J. Gallucci. Demers and board member Judith Carl of Waterboro. The committee, it was suggested, should be made up of a board member, an administrator, a parent, a teacher and a student member. The report, it was suggested, should be completed by May, allowing implementation of the new procedures by the start of school in fall.

already brought up to specs by the contractors. The print size of the Town Report was an issue. SAD 57 this year had been reduced in size. Next year's report will return to the size of print most are accustomed to. The method of delivery was also discussed and it was pointed out that an area of 40 plus miles had to be covered.

One of the most discussed issues concerned article 34-1, to see what amount the town would raise to renovate the Town Hall and pave the parking lot. Money in original contract was for the addition to the Town Hall and not for the original building itself. Over $14,000 has been spent so far. Some projects included were the lighting, insulation, wall boards, floor boards, repairs to ceiling, a well and hot water tank underpinning and insulation of its foundation. The selectmen reported they did approve moves from the Statewide, the unofficially selected members of the town, and James Carl, board member and member of the town (Social Society) but that some projects were received by the historical society. The selectmen did not want to consider anything else, but the few things could not be changed, but what could be done was to make the Town Hall a better place. The old building was in Waterboro, and the words renovate and repairs have to have some meanings. A comment was made that next year, it will be nice if Town Meeting can be held in the new building. The goal is to complete the building so that can become one that can be respected and used. Two counties were taken. This issue was closed. First was an issue. SAD 57 second count was 63-40. Approval was made of $20,000 to be taken from the taxation and the remainder to be taken from the sale of the present municipal building, a problem. The town meeting was held on March 17, it was amended that a study be conducted and reviewed at the next town meeting.

A town seal design was presented by Philip Gard ner for consideration. The

The breakdown of Sanford's voting result is as follows: Ayes vote, 59. District 2 - 131 yes, 62 no; District 3 - 125 yes, 88 no; District 4 - 105 yes, 55 no; District 5 - 92 yes, 59 no; District 6 - 56 yes, 64 no; District 7 - 54 yes, 97 no.

The ban of the machines, which will take effect within a month, will allow the regulation of slot machines in bars and clubs around the state. Last year the machines raised an estimated $2 million for charity, out of $7.8 million that was wagered.

Good News - St. Thomas School Tuition Not To Be Increased

SANFORD - It was good news this week for parents of children attending St. Thomas School here when it was announced that tuition for the 1980-81 school year will not be increased.

St. Patrick's principal of the 300 students attending the Cottage Street facility, said tuition will remain at $200 per single child and $100 for each additional child up to $400 per family.

The actual cost per child is over $500, according to Sister Patricia. The remainder of the costs are absorbed by the three local Catholic parishes which have students attending the nine year old school. Another contributing factor in keeping the costs stable is various fund-raising activities sponsored by the school PTO.

Sister Patricia had the good news about the tuition stabilization for parents who registered their children this week for September classes. A second day of registration for those who were unable to register their children Tuesday will be held this Sunday, March 23, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the school.

There are 12 teachers at the school which is in its ninth year of operation. Four of the teachers are nuns and the other eight are lay faculty. Religious orders represented at the school are Ursuline and Holy Cross.

Registration is being held as part of Catholic School Week, being observed this week.

At Sanford Airport

Leasing Is Preferred

SANFORD - Selection was the factor lessening interest in selling land at the Sanford Airport to the Longstream Corporation. The company would accept either option.

"We'll make sure we don't lose them," said Secretary Stephen Shaw. "We'll do whatever they prefer." Either way, the selection of the company's use of the airport would be beneficial to Sanford.

The large conglomerate, which owns Bath from Works and whose trade name is Conglomerate Flooring, is considering moving its headquarters from Milwaukee, Wis. to Portsmouth, N.H. It would like to build a maintenance facility at the Sanford airport to service its corporate jets.

The selection have hired the planning engineering firm of Howie Turner & Assoc., Inc. of Manchester, N.H., who specialize in aviation, as consultants. They recommend that the town lease the 2½-acre tract of land or sell the land with the first option to buy it back if sold.

According to Shaw, many private planes are either based at the airport or use it as a stopover enroute to another destination. C. Ro Industries, Sprague Electric Co. and Pratt & Whitney are among the firms that now use the airport.

Alfred Church Honors Past Officers

ALFRED - Past officers of the Alfred Parish Church were honored recently at a pot luck dinner following the regular Sunday service. Numerous casseroles, salads and desserts were consumed to the hearty enjoyment of everyone.

Following the meal, Spere Theodosios, master of ceremonies, read the list of 1979 church officers, thanking each one for his or her contribution to the church.

Special honorees of the day were Almon and Alison Williams, the couple has devoted many years of volunteer time, serving in various capacities, to the betterment of the entire church community. In appreciation, gift certificates to a local landscaping firm were presented to the Williams' by Theodosios. Almon was unable to attend the dinner because of a previous com-

Waterboro Notes

In Main Room

There are many exciting upcoming events at The Waterboro Free Baptist Church, in East Waterboro.

The Reverend Lee B. Jackson is pastor of the church located on Route 5. Every second Monday of the month at 6:15 p.m. a group meets at the church for a family night of roller skating at the Happy Wheels in Westbrook. Sunday, March 31 is Girl Scout Sunday. Mrs. Barb's girl scout troop will be taking part in the service and a special coffee hour will follow with the girls serving their parents.

That evening at 7 there will be a sacred concert performed by Tom Danek of the Free Baptist Church in Limerick. A Fellowship Supper will take place at the home of Mrs. Mary Ann Foy in East Waterboro. It will be a casserole supper beginning at 6 p.m. Volunteers are needed to help with the nursery from infants through kindergarten age.

Donations are still being accepted towards the completion of the insulation and stripping of the Fellowship Hall. A sum of $300 is still needed.

The vote on the slot machine referendum question held at the Waterboro Elementary School Gym brought 119 votes to the public. The results were 74 yes and 45 no votes.

The Waterboro Firemen's Auxiliary met earlier this month for the annual business meeting, followed by a pot luck supper. Officers elected for the 1980-1981 year were: Sherry Lee Deer, president; Ann Abbott, vice president; Nancy Ross, secretary; Ruth Ann Foy, treasurer; and Sunshine committee head, Beverly Newlin.

This group of ladies (the auxiliary) works hard to raise funds for the fire department and they are among their members some of the greatest cooks in town.

Their next event is a supper for the York County Firemen's Association scheduled April 14th.

In the case of their church involvement, they both feel that this philosophy has certainly proven true.

Because the pot luck dinner was so successful, the standing committee voted to hold a similar meal once a month after the family Sunday service.

The Evaluation Process

EVALUATION OF TEACHERS and their teaching methods is an on-going process (by Joseph May, shown seated, Sanford's director of elementary education for K-5. May visited the Central School recently and observed third-grade teacher Patricia C. Matthews, a veteran of 19 years in the classroom. May formally evaluates some 41 teachers two to three times a year, observing their classroom techniques and offering suggestions for improvement when needed. (Photo by Bob Murray)

Commentary

For School Director Post

The Sanford News - A 'Good News' Newspaper

Producing the first edition of The Sanford News has been a challenge. It's been hectic at times, but it's been fun. Fortunately, the people producing this newspaper (see page 3) are mostly from the greater Sanford area and they are experienced in what they are doing. But in two short weeks and less for some had to learn things (which they did remarkably well) and turn out a brand new newspaper.

Now it's up to the readers and advertiser, expect of forthcoming editions?

The area is quite simple but the task never ending. The Sanford News will try to cover as completely as possible the news of Sanford, Springvale, North Berwick, Lebanon, Acorn, Shapleigh, Lyman, Alfred, Waterville and Limerick. While legitimate controversy will be met and reported by any good newspaper. The news will not indulge in character assassination or be looking behind every door for that sensational story.

At the risk of sounding out of step with some segments of the journalistic profession, the owners of this newspaper believe the good news of area organizations, churches, businesses and individuals should be reported along with the bad news. Since there are a lot more good things happening than bad in the greater Sanford area, the end result should be that The Sanford News will be the 'good news' newspaper.

Another obligation of your local newspaper is to promote that which is for the good of the community, be it a service club benefit, a heart fund drive or a sales event by the businesses of the community which make this newspaper and a lot of other things possible. In regard to the last category, please note today's Business Review.

Finally, management of The Sanford News welcomes your criticisms and, of course, its personnel will be glad to justify what you like about the paper.

Both The News and The Transcript, a southeastern New Hampshire weekly newspaper, are family operated by Paul Lynn, Buzz and Danyla Dietterle. We all look forward to meeting residents of the greater Sanford area.

A reminder: The News will be available free of charge again next week, after which it will be sold via newspaper carriers, by mail and in stores.

Paul Dietterle, Publisher

'Filling Great Void'

Dear New Friends,
As an indication of my pleasure (unbounded) at the prospect of a new weekly I am enclosing my check for a year's subscription. To sure $13.00 will be enough but if not you may call me.

I am behind you all the way and you might be interested in the reaction of a group of ten people who were at our home last Sunday. When I mentioned a new paper for a moment there was dead silence and then questions and many remarks (as to the need etc.) all favorable. One person wanted the phone number so she could have a club event published!

You are filling a great void in our community and my husband joins me in wishing you the very best in your new venture.

Sincerely Yours,

More Volunteers Needed For Meals-On-Wheels

SANFORD - Meals-On-Wheels is in need of volunteers to deliver hot meals one day a week. Sanford has approximately 40 citizens that receive hot meals, five days a week. There are three volunteers a day that deliver the meals.

With summer coming on, there's a need for volunteers to fill in during vacations, and sick days. In many cases, the volunteer is the only person recipients see from one day to the next. If anyone feels he has an hour a week to spare, consider spending it as a volunteer. Call Sherri Babin, 636-3341, for more information.

Natural Foods Topic Of Speech

ALFRED - You are what you eat is a maxim that definitely holds true, according to Master Musters, when she presented a program entitled "Cooking Naturally" to the March meeting of A.M. Club.

Whole foods, Mrs. Musters explained, are grains, beans, and seeds. If they are unrefined, original state, she continued, they are natural foods. She continued that whole natural foods are whole foods that have gone through some processing, such as wheat ground into flour, or the chemical structure of the food remains unaltered.

Organic foods are foods grown without pesticides and chemical fertilizers. Mrs. Musters cautioned her audience by saying that just because a food is whole does not necessarily mean that it is organically grown.

She self-described junk food addict while in college. Mrs. Musters has been a natural food enthusiast for eight years.

Why should one eat natural foods? The human body is able to synthesize natural foods, but the numerous chemicals utilized in the processing of most packaged and convenience foods are not easily broken down by the body - the more chemicals, the more difficult for the body.

Mrs. Musters said that a frequent reason why some people are beginning to become aware of a knowledge that there may be a connection between chemicals we consume in our foods and many diseases, rather than problems with hypertension for example.

National AWANA Month

In Marie Bean's March is National AWANA month and the thirtieth anniversary of AWANA. In observance, Monday had been chosen all across the nation and in several other countries as the day children will wear their uniforms to school.

Clubbers have also been asked to write an article on what they like best about AWANA. AWANA stands for Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed and is taken from the 11 Timothy 2:15. It is an interdenominational club where children from kindergarten to grade three (teenage for the girls) gather to learn bible verses, compete in various games and enjoy the fellowship of children their own age with a common goal - a study of the Bible. This is the second year of AWANA clubs in Waterboro. They meet weekly at Blandell Memorial Baptist Church, at school on Thursdays. Mrs. Louise Nason is the director of the program.

The Sparks club is for boys and girls who are in kindergarten, grades one and two. The Sparks director is Marilyn Chadbourne. Leaders are Betty Ann Hammond and Adam Perkins. They work with the children together with teen helpers Scott Nason, Betty Carbone, Jason Vorpej and Scott Carbone.

AWANA Clubs offer five goals. For kids to have the free time to enjoy the games and challenges of the club; for the kids to develop friendships and a place to belong; to help them develop the discipline of a club program designed to stimulate them physically, socially, mentally and spiritually; kids do understand how the bible relates to their lives today; kids respond to the instruction of Christian leaders of AWANA.

Liane Carbone has completed three of the Sparksbooks and received a plaque in recognition of the highest rank. Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Carbone, Jr. of South Waterboro.

Zoning board secretary Elmer Howard said the extension would not be given until the appeal is resolved. The variance was intended to add additional information and seek legal advice.

Redskins Take Western Maine Wrestling Title

RUMFORD - Sanford High's Jeff Webb came up with a tremendous 3-4 clutch win in the final match of the day to give the Redskins the Western Maine Regional Wrestling Championship in a meet held at Rumford Saturday.

Going into the unlimited class match, the Redskins trailed Rumford by one point, 125½ to 124½, and only a win by Webb could keep them from a second place finish. Webb's victory was worth four points to the Redskins total and resulted in Sanford's victory 128½ to 125½. Kennebunk and Westbrook also finished strongly in the day-long competition that involved 12 teams.

The champions went into the final round of the day trailing the Panthers by nine points. Four of the 12 final round matchups were all-important head-to-head encounters between Sanford and Rumford wrestlers. Rumford only needed to split the four to clinch the championship. In the first Sanford/Rumford clash 105 lb. class Kevin Mercier defeated Rumford's Scott Murphy 5-2. After a Ken Hoyer loss to Panther Rene

Cyr in the 112 lb. class, Jeff Howe kept Sanford's hopes alive with a decision over Tom Fitts in the third Sanford/Rumford match-up to bring the Redskins to within one point of the leaders. This set the stage for Webb's thrilling 5-4 decision over veteran Panther wrestler Eldon Dolfelt.

Another crucial win in the final was Mike Carmichael's decision over Marlow's Mark Rye in the 130 lb. class which narrowed Rumford's lead to five points. The win also gave Mike his 100 win without a loss in four years of Maine schoolboy competition.

dating back to his freshman year when he wrestled in the 107 lb. class.

John Savage suffered his first loss of the season in the semi-finals of the 155 lb. class after 29 consecutive victories. He managed to earn a spot in Saturday's championships, however, when an illegal move by an opponent in a later match gave him a win through disqualification. Savage was injured in the match and was hospitalized temporarily, but he should be in good shape for the state meet Saturday.

become co-captains Lory Norbert and Darlene Cote, Sandy Larose, Rene Marlowe, Sandy Morin, Pauline Dubé, Lisa Vaccaro, Cathy Chabot and Cindy Simonneau. Also receiving letters were managers Steve Cabana, Deanna Little and Pauline Cote.

Gene's Bakery won the Junior Division Championship with a 2-3-3 win over Springvale Hardware. Jason Sullivan's basket with 15 seconds left in the game provided the margin of victory.

Sullivan led all scorers in the contest with 13 points. Teammate Mark Cousins and Springvale Hardware's Jason Sullivan had 12 points apiece. Jeff Jacques of the winners and opponent David Langlais shined defensively with 13 points.

Gene's Bakery had defeated Springvale Hardware 29-19 in their semi-final game.

Massabesic Girls Feted

by Ray Bernard
WATERBURY
The progress in girls basketball in just the past two years has been outstanding and the girls are beginning to gain the recognition and respect they deserve. That was head coach Kip Libby.

Libby made the statement at a recent covered dish supper honoring the Massabesic girls players. Before awards were presented, a film on ball handling was shown. Although freshman coach Martha Gallagher was unable to attend the dinner, she sent word that she was proud of her team.

Freshman girls receiving awards were Wendy Bickmore, Julie Gile, Susie Herzog, Doris Lino, Lath Lambert, Karen Thorne, Denise Thompson, Patty Martel, Monica Miller, Jean Gammon, Darlene Libby, and Julie Farle.

Following the freshman awards, J.V. Coach Dan Pelletier was introduced and was recognized for his building of skills and invaluable assistance in Libby throughout the year.

Couch Pelletier addressed the parents thanking them for their cooperation during the year and reminding the athletes to express gratitude to their parents.

Pelletier reflected on his 10th and 10th season. He stated they may have fallen short of their goal, but there was no doubt they had accomplished the most important goal of learning skills and gaining experience. He said he was very optimistic about the future of girls basketball at Massabesic.

He finished by honoring the following players with certificates of recognition: Jackie Moirac, Denise Woodson, Tami Breth, Stela Tebberts, Jodie Johnson, Sarah Fong, Darlene Huntress, Sue Scott, Moss, Wawoo, Debbie Torrey, Vicki Adams, Theresa Robarge, Chris Emmitt, and Donna Dele.

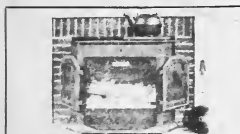

Then it was time for the varsity awards. Libby, who commended on each of his players' accomplishments, which were funny and embarrassing. On the more serious note, the team was recognized as highly coachable and extremely scrappy. It was thoroughly enjoyable season for me, said Libby.

When I insured my house, I was Mr. Mayes. When I had a claim, I was Mr. 107-91243.

When you buy insurance from an agent who works directly for one insurance company, he is probably not the person you talk to when you have a claim. Most one-company agents have nothing to do with the claims process. So if you have a claim, it's between you and the adjuster. Your independent insurance agent doesn't do business that way. It's right there, ready to serve you when you have a claim, helping you reach a fair settlement as quickly as possible. And since your independent insurance agent can offer you policies from several different companies, he can choose the policy that is just right for you. It's the right price, whether you need home/auto, life, or business insurance. Don't assume. Get a quote. You'll see the difference.

Key Club Spurs Drive For Gym Units

SANFORD - The Sanford High School (S.H.S.) physical education and athletic departments may soon have a multi-station universal gym thanks to the efforts of the S.H.S. Key Club and students.

The Key Club, which has chosen this as a school project, formed a steering committee and scheduled fundraising efforts to raise the $6,500 needed to purchase the apparatus.

The equipment has been included in the school budget for the past four years but has been always eliminated in the final budget. This year, however, the school committee will seriously consider budgeting $2,500 for the gym, board members have made.

The students are hoping to raise up to $2,500 by the time the remainder to be raised by community groups. The following activities have been tentatively scheduled:

In Gymnastics Championships

Deschenes Impressive

SANFORD Sanford High School sophomore gymnast Karen Deschenes turned in an impressive performance at the Maine High School Individual Girls' Gymnastics Championships held at Hampden Academy last week.

According to Sanford High gymnastics coach Mark Ward, Karen finished about midway in the competition that featured 5 of the best girls in the state. Most encouraging was the fact that many of the girls competing were juniors and seniors.

Diane Johnson of Deering High was the all-around winner at the meet collecting wins in three of the four individual championships. Meet director was Ruth Fitzpatrick of Bangor Academy.

Mrs. Deschenes has been the top all-around gymnast for the Redfords girls during the past season. She has consistently scored in high figures in the ten meets held this year against such teams as Portland.

Buddford and Bangor Eagles competes in all four Olympic events: floor exercises, balance beam, uneven bars and vaulting. Karen finished with a perfect 10.00 on the uneven bars.

 which sought to give a lump sum raise for 1979 and to bring the two parties to a settlement. The so-called citizen's group had no bearing in the resolution of the deadlock. Currier said.

Alfred Robinson, union vice president, Thomas Gilman, secretary-treasurer, and executive board members, David McLean and Bruce Knight. The union's attorney was George Wood of Saco.

Firemen had not won out a contract since summer 1978, and they have worked since that time without a pay raise. Neither the commission nor the union would say if the contract included a retroactive pay hike for 1979.

Currier called the contract "fair and just for both sides." Covered in the agreement are 24 firefighters, Three Emergency Medical Technicians, who are represented by Local 1624, are not included in the contract.

It one buys in a shopping center where there are high, then one will also find that prices for produce are high. Conversely, if one purchases from one of several stores in York County that specializes in whole foods from a small farmer, one will find prices quite reasonable.

Fallen Tree Closes School

By Ruth F. Crouch
The children of the Acton Elementary School had an unexpected cartholism last Wednesday, as a tree falling down on Route 109, not far from the Acton Trading Post.

There was an electricity in the area for over two hours, beginning just before noon. At the beginning of the outage, Central Maine Power Company, phoned the school, advising that the children should come home because it would be quite a while before power could be restored. It was anything but a holiday for the teachers and bus drivers, however, as you can imagine. The children, however, had a day off from school on Wednesday, was postponed.

Alfred's Annual Meeting

The town contained $46,000. Voters later dipped into the same account for an additional $8,000 to pay a portion of the town revenue expenses. An alternative proposal to raise the $54,000 through taxation was narrowly defeated 72 to 24.

Article 27, maintaining paved roads, was sliced in half, leaving $5,000. Article 28, improving town roads was chopped $10,000 leaving $10,000 in federal revenue funds.

When queried about the reliability of federal funds, Moderator Richards said the idea Alfred already has the money.

Injecting a note of levity into the proceedings, Roger Melvin joked, "At the rate of gas, we're not going to use them (roads) any more."

Articles 29-31, maintenance of highways and bridges - $7,500; state aid roads - $5,800, and brush cutting along the roads - $2,000, were all passed with little discussion.

In clarification on the $27,000 needed for the town dues was explained that over $2,000 goes directly to Lakes Region Disposal with which Alfred has a three year contract, the remaining amount is for the dump attendant, lights, etc. The amount paid to Lake Region follows the Consumer Price Index.

Dr. Richards said that Alfred's problems were solved unless some towns still struggling with the solid waste question. A request for $2,000 to complete the closing of the dump was approved.

The $2,000 request for cemetery repairs was cut in half. Several trees need to be removed, but their precarious position in relationship to the cemetery and nearby buildings necessitates their removal by professionals.

Other articles approved were Parsons Memorial Library, $5,500; fire hydrant rental, $8,016, improvements to the municipal building, $5,000, and insurance on town property, $5,000, which at the request of a resident will be put out to bid.

Town Treasurer Sylvia Roberts is going to investigate the feasibility of removing town government properties in CD's. Because of the rise in interest rates since the move, was originally to be made, it may be possible to remove the money, absorb the penalty, remain at today's interest rate, and have Alfred still come out ahead.

Interest on unpaid taxes was raised from 10 per cent to 18 per cent.

Because of illness, Alfred's third selectman, Roscoe Hussey, was unable to attend town meeting.

Beattie Urges New Elementary School

community for more than the next five years. Built in 1970 to accommodate 1,300 students plus a 10 per cent growth factor to a maximum of 1,430 students the high school has averaged 1,240 students the past five years. Thus, according to Dr. Beattie, the school population may increase 15 per cent before changes in programs or facilities would become necessary.

Not all of Dr. Beattie's recommendations in his five year plan concern the need for new facilities, or enlarging existing ones. In fact, of equal importance, according to Dr. Beattie, is a well developed maintenance program.

In discussing the 10 year old high school building, Dr. Beattie states, "A five year maintenance program should be developed and followed in order to keep this building both functional and in good repair."

Dr. Beattie states that with the exception of the Central School, all the elementary school buildings are presently in fair to good condition. He warns, however, that these buildings should have a five year maintenance plan similar to that of the high school if they are to continue to meet the needs of the community.

In addition to the construction and maintenance of facilities, Dr. Beattie urges that the School Committee work to develop a district-wide plan to accommodate handicapped students, as required by law. He also recommends that a parking and traffic plan for all schools be implemented.

In areas of programs and staff, a reading program has been established at the High School enabling freshmen to receive help, thus affording reading help to any students in kindergarten through ninth grade. The School Department also has established programs for students who have truancy behavior problems, but the task has not been easy, admits Dr. Beattie. Sanford has attempted to hire staff and develop programs for students with such problems and although these students have met with some success, "this area of alternative education is in need of constant evaluation and revision," said Dr. Beattie.

The superintendent outlined 12 basic needs in program/staff area for the first five years of the 1980's. They are:

- Study plans for pre-kindergarten and nursery program.
- Develop alternatives for students who have been turned off by present programs.
- Develop basic skill plans in all major subject areas.
- Study the need for a full-time school psychologist.
- Study need for an additional social worker for students in grades seven through twelve.
- Study need to expand physical education for K-3.
- Study need for curriculum coordinator for K-12.
- Study need for more para-professionals at all levels.
- Develop better programs for truancy problem.
- Study and develop vocational programs.

Develop plans to meet guidance needs at all levels.

-Study and develop a family living program for K-12.

In reviewing the past five to ten years, Dr. Beattie said it is apparent "we are blessed with a sound educational system, a dedicated staff, a concerned citizenry, and a forward-looking School Committee. We cannot, however, stand on our laurels or honestly believe we have accomplished all that is possible in this educational field."

Dr. Beattie pledges however, that the School Department "will continue to provide the best education possible while maintaining a sound budgetary process."

The CBers might miss Happy Go Lucky this summer, because when we spoke to her this week, she was making plans to have Pam take her for long walks not only around home but in Sanford and surrounding areas. In short, Pam has opened up a whole new world and Thelma is ready to get forth to enjoy it.

Town officers compensation was increased to the following amounts: $2,500, chairman, selectmen, $2,000, 2 selectmen, $1,800, Town clerk, $1,200, collector, $1,200, treasurer, and $750, fire chief.

State wages will be paid to all other employees of the town who do not normally receive a salary.

The code enforcement officer received $1,500 and the civil defense director received $50.

Reads voted to be accepted by the town include Fern Drive in the Fulton Acres subdivision and First Street of Lower Mousam. The snow removal contract which was awarded to Alan P. Beal in 1979 expires this spring. The town officers voted going out to bid for another three year period. Official notice will appear in the newspapers to solicit bids at the property.

Moderator Harry Beatty rapped the level at 4:15 p.m., signifying the conclusion of the meeting and commending those who managed to stay to the end.

Sanford Savings And Loan

90th Anniversary Observed

SANFORD - It's been a festive mood at the Sanford Savings and Loan Association Building on Main Street this week as the oldest banking institution in the community celebrates its 90th anniversary.

Monday marked the official day of celebration, as the bank was founded on March 17, 1890. And visitors and customers to the bank this past Monday may have wondered for a moment if they had not re-entered that golden era of the '90's. Bank personnel were dressed in the fashions of the turn of the century, and of particular delight to the youngsters who accompanied their parents to the bank was free popcorn which was distributed from a vintage popcorn machine which had been set up in the lobby. For those with a sweet tooth, pieces of a birthday cake also were distributed.

The Savings and Loan Association was established in 1890 as the Sanford Loan and Building Association. A small group of influential citizens in Sanford, among them first president Dr. J.H. Neal believed there was a need for a local banking institution where people could borrow money to build homes. At the time, there was no bank in the community and the nearest one was in Limerick.

After one year of operation, the association had paid all expenses, had declared an eight per cent dividend on all shares and had an a Guaranty Fund of $13.13. The association had loans amounting to $9,000 earnings of 43 cents and 400 shares, subverted.

On the evening of April 15, the Realtors with the cooperation of several banks will hold public seminars on the buying and selling of homes. These will be open to the general public without charge, but reservations will be requested.

The seminars are being conducted as part of the Realtors observance of Private Property Week. This year the Realtors are observing Private Property Rights - Protect Them.

John Gendron, president of the York County Board of Realtors, and Roland Dabson, chairman of the Multiple Listing Service, will be the main attraction of the night of the individual to own property is one of the greatest privileges of the American democracy.

Both said that this right of private property ownership does not prevail in many other countries. The seminars, authorized by the National Association of Realtors, will be geared to the problems inherent in today's tight money and inflationary interest rates.

A CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION was presented to Carl R. Wright of Sanford for having the oldest account at Sanford Savings and Loan Association. Wright, at left, a past president of Sanford Savings and Loan, receives the certificate from Charles W. Brown of Springfield, center, chairman of the board, and Linwood S. Rollins, Waterbury, vice chairman. The presentation was part of the Association's 90th anniversary celebration.

As a result of reaching the goal of 6,000 Campbell's labels, the Acton School Improvement Association was able to get a vinyl covered gym mat. Council recently sponsored a rubies clinic at the gym, that came apart so the children can study them, and two books for the library, a dictionary and a thesaurus.

Recently elected officers of Mossam Lake Security are Joseph Young, chairman; Ronald Small, vice-chairman; Charles Conant, secretary; Lillian Weston, treasurer; Evelyn Gardner, public relations; Paula Gervais, information coordinator and firefighter; and Jimmie Sam. At the March 10 meeting in the Shipligh Town House, John Gervais and Sam Carl served refreshments.

The American Red Cross Vital Signs Course, taught in Action by Marilyn Roberts and Fournette Coe, was completed March 10. The following 11 people received certificates for temperature, pulse, respiration and blood pressure: Rhoda Edmonds, Lorraine Veaton, Maureen Doddridge, Margery Greenleaf, Mary Deane, Julie Roberts, Beverly Davis, Rita Baker, Gloria Corrigan, and Rita Cahill.

The Acton Health Council recently sponsored a rubies clinic at the gymnasium. Ninety-two dogs and 11 cats were "patients." Rena Andrews, clerk, sold dog licenses.

Acton Notes

During February and March the members of the Acton Fire Department have been attending a training school in forest fire fighting, taught by Russell Horning of the State Forest Service.

Dr. George Basko, by talking, demonstrating, and using visual aids, presented the topic "Natural Foods" at a recent Acton Extension meeting. He demonstrated by following a recipe in front of the group. The visual aids were taste samples of the things made. Natural foods are foods that have had no processing done to them. Other foods make the body work harder to digest them, and even then vitamins are lost, she said.

The Acton Taxpayers Association met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes.

Lebanon Notes

The 50+ Club will meet at 10:30 a.m. on March 27. Registration will be at 10:30 and the meeting will start at 11 a.m. For reservations, call any of the following before March 24: Ethelyn Parsons, Lebanon 457-1128; Beatrice Labbe, Berwick 698-1124; or Lillian McCrill, North Berwick, 676-2222.

Plans for an Easter sunrise service and breakfast on April 8 have been completed by the East Lebanon North Berwick Baptist Church on Little River Road.

Alfred Notes

New Horizons will meet at 7 p.m. on Tuesday at the Cantant Chapel for the group's monthly luncheon. The menu will offer St. Patrick's Day fare: corn beef, cabbage, potato leeks, colls, and lime gelatin with cream for dessert.

Waterboro's Town Meeting

oters Okay Land Sale

years Waterboro has had to town sale.

The next issue was the matter of joining the Portland Police as a means of waste disposal. The problem arises as Waterboro's growth has increased and the present dump is inadequate. The department of Environmental Protection (DEP) has been pushing for the closing of the dump. Alternatives were presented. A dump must still be maintained for articles not acceptable by the Portland Police (ie., old cars, tires, refrigerators, tree stumps). A transfer station must be set up, transporting rubbish to the dump and the covering of the present dump to DEP specifications were to be included in the initial cost of joining the Baler $54,825. In July, $42,600, per year, $120,000, was the figure even though the first year included the above mentioned articles) and there was much debate as to how to pay this figure. The outcome went in favor of the selectmen to sell town lots in the Lake Arrowhead area with the approval being subject to voter approval at a special town meeting. (The town owns 400 lots in this area and hopes to sell $80,000 worth to join the Baler and $60,000 worth for repairs to done next year to Lodge-mere Bridge.)

The other issue that brought discussion was article 60, concerning the sale of lands acquired through private property. The discussion came in the addition of a one year term to a three year term to begin next year. (The three year term of election was awarded to John Monmouth; Willis Lord was re-elected as road commissioner and Judith Carl was elected to the S.A.D.'s school board seat.)

house was remodeled and occupied by the bank that November. In 1964, directors approved a Town Temporary sign as a service to town's citizens.

A diamond anniversary open house was held in 1965 as part of the bank's 75th anniversary. A birthday cake and coffee were served during a week-long celebration.

As part of the bank's 90th anniversary celebration this week, Carl R. Wright of Sanford, a past president of the bank, was awarded a certificate for having association's oldest account which was started in 1906. The certificate was presented in a ceremony conducted by Charles W. Brown, chairman of the board of directors. Linwood S. Rollins, vice-chairman of the board; and Ronald R. Findlay, president of the association.

The association has been operating since 1906 on Main Street since its move there. A branch office has been opened on Route 202 in Waterboro. In addition, the bank will open another branch office in early summer located in the southern part of town, and lower Main Street in Sanford.

The purpose of the bank is to provide a safe place for the community's money.

When Wright was honored this week, the bank officials recalled his service to the association. Wright not only served as president, but he also was an assistant treasurer, director, secretary, treasurer and officer manager. He retired from the association on Aug. 31, 1969, after nearly 30 years of service.

ERA introduces the first risk-free way to buy or sell your home.

When you buy a new house before you sell your old one a lot of things can happen. Most of them are bad. You might end up with double mortgage payments. You might lose a lot of money when you have to sell at a distressed price. You might even be forced to move and be separated from your family. The problem is there's never been any other way to do it. Until now.

Until ERA[®] introduced the unique new Sellers Security Plan. Now you can use your home's equity before you sell. And you can avoid double house payments. And you can be sure your house will sell at a price you can live with. Now there's the Sellers Security Plan. The first risk-free way to buy before you sell.
